- [2] Those who cannot arrive in Japan by the date specified by MEXT or the accepting university;
- [3] Those who were previous grantees of Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship programs (including those who withdrew from the scholarship program after acquisition of student status). However, this does not apply to those who wish to apply for Research Students program and meet any one of the following conditions. In addition, since the Monbukagakusho Honors Scholarship for Privately-Financed International Students does not apply to the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship programs, the previous grantees can apply.

- those who have at least three years of educational or work experience after the end of the payment of the previous scholarship and before the start of this scholarship;
- the past grantees of Japanese Studies Students program who have graduated or are going to graduate from universities in their home countries, Japan-Korea Joint Government Scholarship Program for the Students in Science and Engineering Departments and Young Leaders' Program;
- those who have obtained or are expected to obtain a degree as undergraduate students of the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship programs (university recommendation/special selection).

- [4] Those who are currently also applying to another program under the Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship system. This includes the programs for which scholarship payments will begin in FY2026;
- [5] Those who are planning to receive scholarships or fellowships from Japanese government, a Japanese government-related organization, or others after the start of the scholarship payment (the acquisition of student status) period;
- [6] Those who are expected to graduate at the time of application and cannot satisfy the condition of academic background by the deadline given;
- [7] Holders of dual nationality at the time of application who cannot verify that they will give up Japanese nationality by the time of the arrival in Japan (the acquisition of student status);
- [8] Those who plan to, from the time of application for the MEXT scholarship program, engage in long-term research (such as fieldwork or internship) outside Japan or plan to take a long-term leave of absence from the university;
- [9] Those who have no intention to obtain a degree.

2 Enrollment

Maximum 5 research students will be accepted.

3 Scholarship Benefits

- 1) Stipend: 145,000 yen per month (subject to change)

※Stipend will be paid for 3 years from October, 2026 to September, 2029. The recipient admitted into the Doctoral program of Kanazawa University will not be able to extend his/her terms of scholarship.

MEXT strictly requires that students admitted to this program complete their doctoral studies within three years from the start of their financial support.

- 2) Travel expenses: round-trip airfare between the applicant's country and Japan

- a) Transportation to Japan: The grantee will be supplied with an economy class air ticket from the international airport nearest to his/her address at the time of leaving his/her country to an international airport in Japan, such as Kansai International Airport. Domestic flight fee, airport usage fee, airport tax, etc. will NOT be covered. (The address in the country of the grantee's nationality stated in the application is in principle considered as the "Address at the time of leaving your country”, ex his/her family’s house). Air travel from a country other than the grantee’s nationality will not be covered.

- b) Transportation from Japan: The grantee who returns to his/her home country within the last-payment month of his/her scholarship will be provided, upon application, with an economy class air ticket from an international airport in Japan to the international airport nearest to his/her home address.
- c) Travel expenses will not be paid for domestic recommenders.

Note1: The cost of any aviation and accident insurance for travel to and from Japan shall be borne by the grantee.

Note2: If a grantee continues to stay in Japan after the scholarship period has ended, he/she will not be paid travel expenses to return home as the temporary return.

Note 3: The definition of “domestic recommenders” is as follows:

① Those who are staying in Japan with a medium- to long-term resident status at the time of application. Those who have their base of residence in Japan, not including tourists and short-term visitors who are staying in Japan for the purpose of taking entrance examinations, etc. It is irrelevant whether the applicant is residing in Japan from the time of after application to the start of scholarship payments.

② Applicants residing outside Japan at the time of application, but will come to Japan as a privately financed international students before the start of receiving scholarship payments.

* If you are or will be in Japan as a privately financed international student, you must complete your program at the school you are enrolled or plan to enroll in before receiving scholarship payments.

* Travel expenses will not be paid for domestic recommenders, regardless of the reasons stated in ① and ②. If applicants return to their country of nationality after applying under condition ①, however, there are no exceptions if students return to Japan before scholarship payments begin.

3) Admission /Tuition fee: waived.
